With this it is considered that the Bank has fulfilled its obligations regarding execution of the Payment in accordance with "SHA" rules. All the banks involved in the Payment, excluding the Bank, shall be entitled to deduct commissions from the Payment amount, if required by an agreement between the Beneficiary and its serving bank.

Nevertheless, in the case of Payments in national currencies of the EEA Member States within EEA only the Beneficiary's bank shall be entitled to deduct the commission from the transferred amount of money before crediting them to the Beneficiary's account.

With this it is considered that the Bank has fulfilled its obligations as regards execution of the Payment in accordance with the "OUR" rules. If the banks involved in the Payment require the commissions, the Bank shall debit these commissions from the Payment Account of the Customer without its prior approval.

17.3.2 If the Customer has not specified the type of Payment of commissions in the Payment Order, the "SHA" terms for payment of commission are applied.

If the Customer fails to comply with the obligation referred to in the previous sentence and specifies the "OUR" type of Payment commissions, the Bank shall be entitled to change the type of Payment commissions to "SHA" or to reject the Payment.

In this case, the Customer's Payment Account balance in the Payment currency is not taken into consideration.

17.4.3 If the Customer has submitted the Payment Order for making of Payment with the currency exchange and has specified the type of commission "SHA", the Account balance in the Payment currency is taken into consideration and Customer shall give to the Bank instructions to convert only the missing amount to the Payment currency for making of the Payment.

17.4.4 The Customer's commissions to the Bank are calculated and paid in EUR except when an Agreement concluded between the Parties or Price List specifies otherwise. If the Account has insufficient balance for payment of the commission or other amount to be paid to the Bank in the specified currency, the Bank may convert the necessary currency from any currency available at the Account at discretion of the Bank, by the application of the Reference Exchange Rate.

If such a transfer is returned to the Bank, the Bank shall carry out repeated Payment on its own account. If the repeated Payment is returned to the Bank, the Payment amount is returned to the Customer's Payment Account, without returning the commission for the Payment.

17.5.3 The Bank shall be entitled not to credit the Customer's Payment Account with the funds, until the time when such funds are paid in the Bank's correspondent bank account.
